

We support the ban on unwanted fax advertisements. They are very wasteful of paper and toner and my employees time. A fax machine is a private tool for communicating and should not be used for business advertising.